

CHURCH ROAD

Church Road Winery is one of the oldest in New Zealand, with a proud history dating back one hundred and thirteen years. From humble beginnings, the winery survived the temperance movement of the early 1900's, the 1931 earthquake and the great depression, and went on to be at the forefront of the modern quality winemaking era in New Zealand.

Your tour of the winery will include a visit to New Zealand's only wine museum where you will start to hear of the people, the passion and the pure hard graft that today is so strongly reflected in the character of our place, our Cuve Room, Tom McDonald Cellar and our wines.
